

Makila James
Director, Office of Caribbean Affairs
United States Department of State

Makila James has served as a Foreign Service Officer for 23 years. From August 2010 to the present, she has been Director in the Office of Caribbean Affairs (WHA/CAR) in the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Western Hemisphere Affairs. As WHA/CAR Director, she manages the work of several Desk Officers and other staff and coordinates U.S. government policy for the countries of the Caribbean (except for Haiti and Cuba), as well as the Caribbean Community (CARICOM) and the Organization of Eastern Caribbean States (OECS). She has also served in Kingston, Jamaica, throughout Africa, and in several domestic positions during more than 20 years of service. Ms. James holds a B.S. from Cornell University, a J.D. from Columbia University Law School, and a Masters of National Security Studies from the National War College.